

Technical side event of UNEP DTU Partnership at COP 22, Marrakesh

The Emissions Gap Report 2016 – the emissions gap and opportunities for bridging it

Date 8 November, 10:30 – 12:00
Room EU Pavilion, Room Brussels

Moderator John Christensen, Director, UNEP DTU Partnership

10:30 – 10:35	Welcome John Christensen, Director, UNEP DTU Partnership
10:35 – 10:45	The Emissions Gap Report 2016: a brief overview of key issues and findings Anne Olhoff, UNEP DTU Partnership
10:45 – 10:55	The status of pre-2020 action and implications of the strengthened long-term objective of the Paris Agreement Michel den Elzen, PBL Netherlands Environmental Assessment Agency Joeri Rogelj, International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis
10:55 – 11:05	The 2030 emissions gap Michel den Elzen, PBL Netherlands Environmental Assessment Agency Niklas Höhne, NewClimate Institute
11:05 – 11:15	The role of non-state action Niklas Höhne, NewClimate Institute
11:15 – 11:25	The role of energy efficiency Ksenia Petrichenko, UNEP DTU Partnership
11:25 – 11:35	The nexus between the SDGs and mitigation action in line with staying well below 2 degrees Celsius Frank Sperling, University of Oxford Ilmi Granoff, Overseas Development Institute
11:35 – 12:00	Q&A with audience

